Private Car from Spartanburg for Clemson Men

SEVERAL TO JAUNT THROUGH

Large Delegation of Strong Men

Clemson College has always been interested in the Blue Ridge Conferences and students and faculty are showing unusually enthusiastic interest in the conference which meets this year, June 16 to 25. At this date there are thirty-three members in the Clemson delegation, and several other students and preachers are trying to arrange plans to attend. So that there will probably be forty people there from the college.

A party of six or eight men are expecting to go by rail to Spartanburg and then jaunt from there to the Blue Ridge grounds, just for the fun of the thing. They will pass through some very beautiful mountain coun-

SPRING FOOTBALL

PRACTICE HAS BEGUN

Coach Hart Starts His Men at a Merry Clip—Big Mass Meeting in Chapel

Coach Hart drifted in Sunday and began working his men at a lively pace in spring football practice Monday afternoon. There were something over fifty out in uniform for the first practice and a number of them are real huskies.

This spring practice will only last for one week and will be of a very light nature—falling on the ball, blocking, running signals, etc. The workout for Monday consisted solely of falling on the ball and blocking. Though a firm believer and teacher of details, Coach Hart impresses one as a man of action, not of words. He is a very pleasant big fellow and is fast becoming a favorite with the boys.

try, have some interesting experiences no doubt, and a trip long to be remembered. Arrangements will be made for a special sleeper to run from Spartanburg or Greenville, where the delegation will meet and travel thru to Blue Ridge in their own car without change. This accommodation will add much to the comfort and pleasure of the trip.

Practically every University and college, and many preparatory schools from nine of the Southern States, will send delegations to Blue Ridge. There is no other place where the student life of the South meets so representatively or closely. Naturally each school endeavors to send its choice men and when the conference convenes on Friday evening of June the 16th, there will sit together in the Blue Ridge Auditorium the best there is in brain and character in the student life of the South.

Expenses of Trip

The conference equipment consists of 1,000 acres of land, owned by the Y. M. C. A., $200,000 in building and improvement, a hotel with 138 rooms, twelve cottages, accommodating fourteen persons each; thirty-two tents, ample athletic facilities, swimming pool, etc.

Any member of the Clemson Y. M. C. A., or member of the faculty who agrees to carry out the full conference schedule may make this trip.

The cost of trip is approximately $21.75, apportioned as follows:

Conference fee	----- 5.00

TIGERS SPLIT EVEN WITH GAMECOCKS

Carolina Wins Opener 4 to 0—Tigers Even Up With 7 to 5 Victory

Meeting for the first time in six years on a baseball field, Carolina and Clemson played two fast and interesting games in Anderson Friday and Saturday. The Gamecocks managed to win Friday's game through the excellent hurling of Adams, and by some timely batting. The Tigers annexed the second through heavy hitting.

In the first game Anderson pitched on even terms with Adams except in one inning, the sixth. In this round Carolina scored four runs on five hits and a boot or two by the Tiger infield. Our only chance to score came when Martin slammed one of Adams' fast ones on top of a house out in center field. Quick work by the outfielder and a good peg home, however, retired Vic.

The second game was ours from the start. Five runs made in the third inning smothered whatever little hope Carolina had of victory. The most sensational play of the day was McMillan's daring steal of home.

CLEMSON TRACK MEN

LOSE TO DAVIDSON

Score 55-53—Adams Elected Captain

The Clemson track team was defeated by Davidson last Saturday afternoon by the very close score of 55 to 53. The men scored first in favor of one and then of the other of the teams and every place was of great importance.

The Davidson lads were in fine trim and three of the college records were broken. Brand broke his own record by running the mile in 4:48 2-5. Grey threw the discus 109 ft., 11 in., and put the shot 35 ft., 4 1-2 in.

Odom ran the fastest mile of his career, finishing close behind Brand in 4:50. Adams was the individual star of the meet, winning two firsts and one second. Grey for Davidson won two firsts, while Dick for Clemson won first in the high hurdles and half-mile by close margins. Stribling won 9 1-2 points.

The records as a whole were pretty fair, as the events will show.

Davidson won 7 firsts, 4 seconds, and 8 thirds, while Clemson got 5 firsts, 8 seconds, and 4 thirds.

EDITORIAL

Owing to the fact that Senior exams begin Monday and next year's staff has not yet been elected, there will be no regular issue of the Tiger next week. About commencement a double size special athletic and alumni edition will be put out. The new staff will be chosen soon and will have charge of this issue; so it will no doubt be the best of the year.

We regret very much not to be able to give you the team and individual batting averages of the baseball team this season, but for some unknown reason the scorebook has been done away with and we are left completely in the dark as to the season's record.

With this the retiring staff bids you a fond farewell and wish for you and assure you a much better paper next year.

AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY ENJOYS ANNUAL BANQUET

Last night at 7:40 the members of the Agricultural Society assembled in the Palmetto Society Hall for the final meeting of the year. No regular program was carried out, the time being given over to business and to the installation of officers for the first term next session. The officers installed were: J. P. Derham, President; M. M. Brice, Secretary; and F. E. Floyd, Treasurer.

The staff for the Agricultural Journal was also chosen. Those elected were D. E. Monroe, Editor-in-Chief, and B. Breland, Business Manager. The department editors will be chosen at the beginning of next session when seniors select the major subjects.

It was decided to publish the Journal quarterly instead of monthly next year.

After the meeting those present repaired to the Y. M. C. A. where all enjoyed an unusually delightful banquet, the annual "feed" of this organization. R. Brice Waters, as toastmaster, proved a treat, while short but impressive and inspiring talks were made by Dr. Riggs, Dean Harper, Dr. Calhoun, and Professor Barre. Dr. Riggs spoke on "Agricultural Colleges," particularly Clemson; Dean Harper on "The Farm"; Dr. Calhoun on "The Future of Agriculture"; and Prof. Barre on Agricultural College Publications. Prof. Barre suggested that our Agricultural Society become a chapter of the National college agricultural fraternity, Alpha Zeta. This suggestion met with great favor, and the necessary action will very likely soon be taken to bring about this desirable feature.

As fillers between the speeches by faculty members, short, spicy after-dinner talks were made by Cadets I. B. Cannon, W. I. Patrick, and C. Kothell.

The occasion was an all-round enjoyable one and a fitting climax to a year's splendid work by the society.

LITERARY SOCIETIES

Carolina

The meeting was one of a business nature and the following officers were elected for the first term of 1910-11: President—J. P. Derham, Jr. Vice-President—A. J. Richards. Secretary—J. N. Lemmet. Treasurer—V. O. Pruitt. Corresponding Secretary—J. W. Thompson.

Literary Critic—T. L. Ayers. Prosecuting Critic—J. M. McGougan.

Censors—A. C. Corcoran, G. M. Lupo.

Wade Hampton

The election of officers for the first term of next year resulted as follows:

President—E. L. Rivers. Vice-President—W. T. White. Secretary—A. W. Wieters. Treasurer—L. R. Warriner. Prosecuting Critic—W. E. Hunter. Reporting Critics—J. S. Watkins, W. H. Sanders, C. A. Wilcox, and G. I. Hutchinson.

Censor—S. Littlejohn. Literary Critic—J. L. Alford. Chaplain—C. L. Baxter.

These men were installed and the incoming president, Mr. Rivers, made a few very appropriate remarks.

In the preliminary contest held to select representatives from the society to the intersociety declamation contest, Messrs. L. R. Warriner and W. T. White were selected.

Columbian

The regular exercises were opened with an oration by Mr. F. M. Haddon on "Duty". The next orator of the evening was Mr. G. J. Sheppard, whose subject was "Progress of Christianity." Mr. E. D. Kyser rendered the society a good selection, "An Essay on Education". Mr. E. H. Seegars gave a good declamation, "The Death Chamber". The debate was on the subject, "Resolved, That the government of the United States should own all public utilities." The affirmative speakers were Messrs. C. E. Littlejohn and J. R. Wise, and opposed to them were Messrs. F. W. Chatham and R. A. Hall. The judges decided for the negative, while the house voted for the affirmative.

SERVICES AT Y. M. C. A.

Last Sunday afternoon Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Harris, and Mr. Tribble, all of Anderson, furnished the splendid music at the Y. M. C. A. that held Clemson cadets and many visitors for quite a while. The Clemson orchestra was on the job also. The visiting musicians gladly remained over for the evening services to furnish music again for the boys.

After the musical program, Mr. John showed pictures concerning the Blue Ridge conference. It seems that our bunch of over thirty who are to attend this conference, are deeply interested, and we predict good work from these men next year.

SPRING FOOTBALL PRACTICE BEGINS

chapel to start the football practice off properly with a few good old time yells and short speeches. Coach Hart, "Johnnie" Gantt, "Rummy" Magill, "Dopie" Major, and "Mule" Littlejohn made speeches, short but to the point, and with the true ring to them.

In Coach Hart's talk he said that he was confident that Clemson would send out a winning team next year. He went further to say that his rules for training would be rigid and strictly enforced, that all men who come out for football will be expected to stay out all the year, that all men, whether they be big, little, old, or young, will have a fair chance to make the team, etc. Coach didn't hand out any soft line but his words and manner were direct and smacked of the old time pep.

Coach was greeted with a thrilling roar of applause and was assured of the hearty confidence and support of the entire corps. The enthusiastic way in which the yells and songs were pulled off is indicative of the great expectations generally entertained with regard to the 1916 football season.

After the mass meeting, Coach kept the squad in chapel and showed them a few offensive plays on the blackboard. Some of the old heads fell for his style of play, and everybody is very optimistic over the football outlook for next season.

VALUE OF A TECHNICAL COLLEGE EDUCATION

A young man can make no better investment than in a technical education. Viewed merely as a matter of business, even if he has to borrow the money at interest, he will find that his increased earning capacity perhaps even the first year after graduation will be sufficient to repay the loan. It is a poor business policy to wait to earn the money necessary to pay for an education with an earning capacity only one-half or one-third that of an educated man. Every year of untrained, uneducated labor represents a direct financial loss. Every boy of ability and ambition whose parents are unable to pay for his education, should get some friend to indorse his note at the bank and begin preparation that will make for greater earning capacity and a fuller life. There is no time to lose. The world is looking for men of large ability and is willing to pay for them. Already there is a surplus of the one horsepower variety.

A college education is no longer a luxury of the rich, but more a necessity of the poor boy whose parents can give him little or nothing to start on. In earning capacity, it represents at the outset a capital of from $15,000 to $30,000, depending upon the energy, character and personality of the possessor, and the capital increases with every year of its efficient use.

There never was a time in the history of the world when expert knowledge was so much in demand, so indispensable to individual success, and so highly compensated. For the untrained await the positions of low wages, long hours and poverty.

Clemson College brings within the reach of every boy in South Carolina the benefits and possibilities of a technical education. The way is provided whereby, if he have the ambition and capacity for knowledge, he need not continue in ignorance. Here, at a cost lower than at any similar institution, can a young man obtain an education that will prepare him for self-sustaining, self-respecting citizenship.

W. M. RIGGS, President.

CLEMSON AND BLUE RIDGE

Last year there were eighty-five schools represented at Blue Ridge, and nearly 400 delegates. This year 500 men are expected.

Aim of the Conference

College life is so filled with activities that make so many demands on the time of students that no movement can claim attention, nor has it a right to claim attention, unless it has a great mission to college men. This the Student Conference claims to have in the following ways:

1. It is a place where men from every college in the South can meet and exchange ideas. It is the mark of a small college, where its students are perfectly satisfied with everything which goes on within its bounds. Every college has certain advantages, but no college has a monopoly of ideas. Not the least advantage of the Student Conference lies in the fact that the ideals and sympathies of those who attend are broadened by contact with the best life and thought of other colleges in the section. Each delegate is saved from the possible misconception that his college is the only educational center in the South, and, on the other hand, he is given a more real appreciation of the work of his own institution.

Great Leaders on Conference Program

2. The conference broadens a man's vision by bringing him in touch with some of the great student leaders of our time.

The program as announced for this year is undoubtedly stronger than ever before in the point of the remarkable list of speakers and leaders who will be present to take part in the conference. Two men stand out above all others: Mr. Fletcher S. Brockman, associated with Dr. Mott as the General Secretary of the International Committee of the Young Men's Christian Associations, who was the foremost Christian statesman in the formation of the recent Chinese republic, and who has been rated by many as one of the few really great men of the world; and Mr. George Sherwood Eddy, who next to John R. Mott, is the best known speaker to students in the world. During the three world tours made during the last five years he has spoken with wonderful power to record crowds in all university centers of the nations.

Among the thirty other speakers and teachers who will take part in the conference are: Dr. H. H. Morne of the University of New York, Dr. E. M. Poteat of Furman University, Dr. O. E. Brown of Vanderbilt University, Dr. H. F. Williams of the Presbyterian Mission Board, Dr. T. B. Ray of the Baptist Mission Board, Dr. Ed. F. Cook of the Methodist Mission Board, Mr. Charles D. Hursey of New York, and Mr. B. G. Alexander, the Southern Executive Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. No man can hear the messages from these men and come in close personal relationship with them without feeling an impulse to a larger life.

Teachers Real Value of Life

3. This conference is the best place in the South to get a real appreciation of the value of the Bible. Too many college men have felt that this book is dry and tedious. It is because they do not know anything about it, not even how to study it. Hundreds of college men all over the South date their first real interest in the Bible from their attendance at this conference.

4. The conference is also valuable because it is the place where religious life becomes a reality to many college men. Students, like other men, are apt to have a formal religious life without the real power of religion. Here, as at no other place, the real meaning of friendship with Christ becomes evident. The whole conference is so sane and so manly as to give a new setting for all Christian thought.

5. The athletic life and college spirit will be something filled with interest to every man. One man remarked after two hours at the conference, that he had heard more college singing and seen more display of college spirit than he had seen in all his four years in college.

6. The life work addresses, outlining the opportunities for life investment, will open up new fields of opportunity to many college men. Many have had their eyes opened at these conferences to opportunities in larger fields of usefulness. Any man who has not yet decided on his life work will find real help in the presentation of the various fields of service.

7. Lastly, the conference is a time when men gather strength to fight the battles of temptation. No man can hope to succeed in life until he is master of himself. This mastery means, first of all, victory over temptation. The problem of how to overcome is the all-important one to every college man. For such men as are fighting hard battles the conference has a real message. Many men have gone from it to find a new life of victory.

Efficiency at Blue Ridge

Efficiency is one of the key words of the Blue Ridge Conference. Every moment of the time is spent to the greatest advantage of the delegates. Regular hours are given each day to the study of the Bible, missions and social work and to the details of association work in the colleges. Each morning at the platform hour, a fundamental theme of Christianity is presented, and in the evening addresses are given with the view of helping men in the choice of their life work. All the leading professions are represented, the men are told about the value of the Christian stewardship of the layman, and they are shown the need of the various forms of Christian work. In all instances men are helped to find the will of God in their lives. Each afternoon is given over entirely to various forms of recreation, including intercollegiate athletics. Championship trophies are offered in baseball, basketball, tennis and swimming.
